MESSAGE

I am proud that C.B Bhandari Jain College, Shankarpuram, Bengaluru, is an affiliated college of Bengaluru Central University (BCU). I am happy to learn that it is organizing a one-day multidisciplinary National Conference on "Synthesis of Modern & Ancient Education system for Holistic Approach to Teaching" on 25th October 2019. I am sure the proposed Conference will build on the existing body of knowledge on education, literature, commerce and management disciplines and help in developing new perspectives in methods of teaching and learning. I hope the conference would provide an excellent platform for exchange of ideas for academicians, research scholars and students.

On this occasion I convey my best wishes to the management, delegates, faculty members and students of the college.

I wish the conference a grand success...

(S. Japhet)

PREFACE

"We want the education by which character is formed, strength of mind is increased, the intellect is expanded and by which one can stand on his own feet"

- Swami Vivekananda

The highest education is that which does not merely give us information but makes our life in harmony with all existence

- Rabindranatha Tagore

C.B.Bhandari Jain college is pleased to host a Multidisciplinary National Conference on "Synthesis of Modern & Ancient Education System for Holistic Approach to Teaching" on 25th October 2019

The overall aim of the conference is to help develop an emerging field at the multi-disciplinary understanding of education systems. It will build on the existing body of work on education, literature, commerce and management, but its primary aim is to explore and develop new perspectives in the methods of teaching.

This Conference also intends to examine the context of a steadily growing interest in investigating modern methods of teaching with the help of visual research methods and other primary research data/records. It will help compare the manner in which new methods of private providers of education operate within and how they can draw inferences from traditional and ancient systems of learning and teaching.

It intends to enhance the research techniques in the area of education, pedagogy, literature and commerce among the aspirants of the above mentioned areas. It expedites innumerable innovative methods of teaching applicable to the modern society and the millenials.

The conference aims to collaborate and share expertise knowledge and skills of academicians, research scholars and executives from various institutions. We thank them for their valuable time and contribution.

Research papers have been submitted from various colleges and universities across the country by Students, Academicians and Research Scholars

The college would like to acknowledge the efforts of all the members of the Advisory Committee, the Invitees and Delegates for contributing to the success of the Conference

The conference Committee would like to thank the valuable opinions of the editorial committee and the resource persons of the panel discussion.

The college is ever grateful for the encouragement, support and presence of the Chief Guest, Professor S. Japhet, honourable Vice Chancellor, Bengaluru Central University.
